"Come Home For Christmas" - the Women of Trinity would like to invite everyone to a special holiday reception after worship today. Please join us in the Miracle Building to mingle with old and new friends, enjoy some delicious holiday goodies and Christmas punch, and have the opportunity to share in the spirit of the season.

Come decorate cookies with us on Sunday, December 19th immediately following worship! Cookies and icing and sprinkles are provided. All that is needed is your imagination. To help you pass up a “cookie lunch” there will be soups and bread to enjoy! Please sign up on the paper in the hall if you are able to provide:

- Undecorated cookies – store bought or homemade
- A crock pot of soup

Please join in on the fun and decorate a plate of cookies for your family and enjoy a yummy lunch!

Session meeting – December 13th @ 7 pm.

A volunteer is needed to be responsible for changing the messages on the sign out by IREM ROAD. This is not a difficult task but it does require some time each week (maybe an hour?), and the ability to spell properly. Punctuation is not necessary. Actually , it is not mandatory to change the message weekly, but if you are so motivated, it will be observed and appreciated. If you are eligible and moved to respond, please call WAYNE at 570-417-2995 and he will assist you in assuming this task and answer any questions. THANK YOU!

How much is enough? This was a very important question for me to answer when I stepped into the director's position at TLC earlier this year. For me, I walked into a role where we had "enough" for years, and we needed the same things annually to prepare for a new school year. Refilling the same supplies, we have ordered in the past, because that was the way that it was done. Our past director was always assured that we had "enough" in the bank as long as there was $100,000 in the account. We had "enough" supplies for the teachers as long as they had what they needed in their classroom, for their class, when they needed it. There wasn't a number assigned to how much "enough" costs or how much "enough" we will ultimately have, or even how much "enough" is left over, or sitting unused in our storage space. Even though we had "enough" for years there was a worry about having enough. Supplies we stored in individual classrooms referenced with specific person's name, instead of "our's" or "the learning center's". So even though we had enough, things felt scarce.

We reorganized and started a resource library to share supplies. In doing so, we grouped like items together and it was eye-opening on the abundance of materials that we had. We have 8 large Rubbermaid totes assorted foam stickers and a large box filled with Pom-Poms. It seems as though every year we just reordered to have "enough" without recognizing the abundance that we had.

Abundance is in the eye of the beholder. Although we have less students this year, we have an abundance of joy in our classrooms that rivals our pom-pom stash.
