HALLELUJAH All our prayers were answered. It has been a long 6 months since January 8th. I was blessed to have a surgeon who gave me the confidence to take our 16-day trip to London and Wales. We were able to have a few days visit with my brother, it was meant to be, because we have been informed this week that he has been hospitalized. Awaiting more news each day.

The surgery on June 7th was 3 hours and very delicate and successful. I was very happy to wake up and have all my mental faculties. I had a severe reaction to the anesthesia for 3 days, with intermittent hallucinations. Continued soft diet due to pain in my forehead, eyes and down the right side of my face to my jaw. It does not look very attractive. Now for the fun to begin, I was told that recovery is rough the first 3 weeks. I feel weak as a kitten. With Windsor's help I do all the therapy. My biggest challenge is patience for the long haul.

We have all been carried on angel's wings. I thank everyone for the cards and support.

In His loving care, Meryl, Windsor, and Beth caregivers
