Opening Responsive Prayer

Psalm 8 [A psalm by David] The Wonderful Name of the LORD

Our LORD and Ruler, your name is wonderful everywhere on earth!

You let your glory be seen in the heavens above.

With praises from children and from tiny infants, you have built a fortress.

Your enemies silent, and all who turn against you are left speechless.

I often think of the heavens your hands have made, and of the moon and stars you put in place.

Our LORD and Ruler, your name is wonderful everywhere on earth!

Anthem

Call to Confession

In our time when we see absolute values fading away. When we spend so much time justifying our wants and hows, rationalizing our sin and guilt. God Calls to us. He says come to me. There is rest for your soul and a new beginning. Though your sins are as scarlet they will be made white as snow.

Prayer of Confession

Holy spirit of God, when we heard you walking in the garden we tried to hide and cover our sin. We have tried to lock the door in the upper room, we have tried to run the other way. The light of your love is all around us. When we are weak, you lift us up. When we have had our pride wounded, you comfort us, you wipe away our tears and refresh us and grant us courage and direction. But we forget to remember you are always with us and will never leave us or forsake us.

Silent Confession

(A time of silence will be observed for personal confession.)

Assurance of Pardon

The one true living God who calls us to mercy and shows mercy upon us knows the depth of your heart in the name of the Father, the promise of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit we are His forgiven children.

Our Response            Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying

Lord, listen to your children praying,
Lord, send your Spirit in this place;
Lord, listen to your children praying,
Send us love, send us pow'r, send us grace.

Sharing Our Faith with Our Children

*Hymn - #302 I Danced in the Morning

Scripture - 2 Corinthians 2:5-17

<sup>5</sup> But if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me but to some extent—not to exaggerate it—to all of you. <sup>6</sup> This punishment by the majority is enough for such a person; <sup>7</sup> so now instead you should forgive and console him, so that he may not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup> So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him. <sup>9</sup> I wrote for this reason: to test you and to know whether you are obedient in everything. <sup>10</sup> Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ. <sup>11</sup> And we do this so that we may not be outwitted by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his designs. <sup>12</sup> When I came to Troas to proclaim the good news of Christ, a door was opened for me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup> but my mind could not rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said farewell to them and went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup> But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession and through us spreads in every place the fragrance that comes from knowing him. <sup>15</sup> For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing: <sup>16</sup> to the one group a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup> For we are not peddlers of God's word like so many, but in Christ we speak as persons of sincerity, as persons sent from God and standing in his presence.
